NOTES

Augusta State's volleyball program is entering its 23rd season and its third season under head coach Amber Glass ... In 2006, the Jaguars more than doubled their previous win total from the 2005 campaign ... Second-year head coach Amber Glass improved the Jaguars from 6-27 in 2005 to 13-21 in 2006 ... Glass herself was a three-time, All-Peach Belt Conference performer during her career at USC Upstate ... She wrapped up her career in 2004 as one of the Spartans' all-time leaders in kills, kill percentage and solo blocks ... ASU hasn't enjoyed a winning record in conference play since 1995 ... The Jaguars return six letterwinners and three starters from last season's squad ... The Jags will turn to seniors and four-year starters Jessica Lowes and Rachel Marcy for leadership ... Lowes saw action in all but three games last season, racking up a team-high 1,089 assists, an average of 9.4 apg., and ranked fourth in the Peach Belt Conference ... Marcy improved her attack percentage and ranked behind only Howard and Sarah Lobstein on the squad in attack percentage ... Lobstein was an all-PBC selection as a senior ... Sophomore middle blocker Jessica Howard returns after being named PBC Freshman-of-the-Year in 2006 .... Howard led the squad in attack percentage (.238) and blocks (111) ... Five newcomers, including three freshmen, make up the second recruiting class for Glass.
