Meeting was called to order at 1:00p.m.

The minutes from the February 5, 2009 faculty meeting were approved.

The Ed. S. status for Counselor Education was not known. Dr. Anderson-Wiley stated that she had not heard anything, but she does know that it has been through the university and now it at the Board of Regents. Special Education status is the same. was tabled in the Teacher Education Curriculum committee. Dr. Jackson will discuss this issue in the next chair's meeting, and then inform Dr. Pollingue on what she needs to do.

Educational Leadership admission requirements were approved.

Faculty Role Model Reports are now on-line. Dr. Jackson will let everyone know when training will take place.

Dr. Jackson stated that faculty travel will be done by the faculty member, but with Sekethia's assistance if needed.

Dr. Jackson informed everyone that the Fall schedule has been sent to Fran.

Dr. Jackson asked the faculty to continue to conserve office supplies. He asked the faculty to try to post things on-line (e-mail, Livetext, etc.) for students to print for themselves in an effort to conserve paper.

Two of our very own, Drs. O'Connor and Smith are serving on the Teaching On-line Committee. This committee have been tasked with coming up with some procedures and guidelines for conducting on-line classes.

Dr. Harris announced that we will be visited in the upcoming weeks by the 3 candidates for the Dean's position. The candidates are Drs. Debra Lo, Ron Styron, and George Fero. She will provide more detail as she receives it.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:40p.m.
