

Recognize your school's

Outstanding Foreign Language Student at the FLAIR honor society induction

All foreign language teachers at each school may select only one student to be their school's Outstanding Foreign Language Student.

*All students selected by their schools as the Outstanding Foreign Language student will be recognized at the FLAIR honor society initiation.

*These students will automatically receive a certificate and gift from FLAIR.

*These students will automatically be nominated for the FLAIR Outstanding Foreign Language Student. (See requirements below)

*One of these students will be selected as the FLAIR Outstanding Foreign Language Student. This student will receive a check and a plaque.

*A photo and article about the FLAIR Outstanding Foreign Language Student will be sent to the local newspaper.

Requirements:

1. The student selected must be a member of the FLAIR Foreign Language Honor Society or be initiated at the FLAIR induction.
2. The student and teacher must submit the Student of the Year nomination forms by the deadline.

Every school has a winner!

DEADLINE: February 22

All FLAIR Outstanding Foreign Language Student nominations must be sent to Dr. Mallory Millender, mmille6417@aol.com
