

Susan F. Schultz, B.S., M.Ed., C.A.S., Ed.D.

Summary

The Northwest and Idaho Association of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance Middle School Teacher of the Year. A physical education professional with an extensive background in instruction and curriculum design, administration, coaching, and organization in related health, physical education, and recreational activities.

Education

Ed.D. in Sport Pedagogy, University of Idaho, 2000

Dissertation: "Implications About Group Cultures in Physical Education: A Narrative"

Certificate of Advanced Study, Springfield College, 1993

Master of Science in Education, Baylor University, 1974

Bachelor of Science in Physical Education, University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, 1973

Awards

$360,000.00 PEP Grant Recipient, 2004: Organized and authored grant

Northwest District AHPERD Middle School Teacher of the Year 2006

Idaho State Middle School Teacher of the Year 2005

Employee Recognition Award, District #91, 2005

Multiple Year Honoree, Who's Who Among America's Teachers 2003-2006

Creating an Atmosphere for Excellence Award, School District #91, 2000

Taylorview Junior High School Teacher of the Month, 1995

Elementary Physical Education Teaching Fellow, Springfield College, 1991

North Dakota-AHPERD Honor Award, 1991

NAIA District 12 Softball Coach of the Year, 1988

Graduate Teaching Fellowship, Baylor University, 1974

Training

Teacher of the Year Seminar, Training designed to train the National TOYS on how to present at conferences and how to use the nASPE Standards. The Seminar also included 3 days of work on "good teaching methods" at the Spectrum of Teaching Institute.

Polar TriFit Fitness Training, Heart Rate Monitor Training, PC for PE Management, and Pedometer Training, "PE Symposium". 5 days of training on equipment and curriculum provided by the PEP Grant.

Leadership for Excellence in Assessment, "A School District Planning Guide." Portland, OR 1999

Get Real About AIDS, Abstinence based curriculum for the State of Idaho. Presented as a statewide curriculum by the State of Idaho Health Department. 1998, 2000

Technology in PE Training, "Technology in Physical Education - Polar Heart Rate Monitors." Fargo, ND 1997

Project ALERT Trainer, "Adolescent Learning Experiences in Resistance Training." Beverly Hill, CA 1995

REACH Trainer, "Respecting Ethnic and Cultural Heritage". Seattle, WA 1994

Teaching Experience

1995 - 2007 Taylorview Jr. High School, Idaho Falls, ID

Physical Education Teacher, 7th – 9th Grade

Health Teacher, 7th, 8th Grade

Responsibilities:

- District PEP Grant Director
- HPE Department Chair
- Health and Physical Education Textbook Adoption Committee
- Health and Physical Education Curriculum Writing Team 2004-2005
- State President of the Idaho Association of Health, Physical Education and Dance 2000
- District 6 IAHPERD Representative 1995-2000
- District-Wide K-12 Interdisciplinary Assessment Instructor 1999-Present
- Health Curriculum Writing Team 2002
- Volleyball Coach, 7 & 8th Grade

Accomplishments:

- PEP Grant Recipient 2004-2007
- Innovative Teaching Methods Using Technology Grant, "Using Polar Heart Rate Monitors for Assessment in P.E.". Awarded 1996
- IAHPERD Presentation 2000, 1998, 1994., 2007
 - "Rendezvous in the Tetons"
 - "What Every P.E. Teacher Should Know About Junior High Students"
 - "Innovative Age-Appropriate Junior High Games"
 - "Multi-Interpretations: Activities for Multicultural Physical Education"
 - "We Do Allow Fun Here" - Demonstration of innovative games by the Taylorview Junior High PE Team
 - "Using the Apple Newton and the Polar Heart Rate Monitors for Assessment in P.E."
 - "Freebies for HPE Educators" - A review of free materials available from internet sites.
- ID School District #91 Technology Conference presentation 1999
 - "Using the Apple Newton for Assessment in Physical Education and the Classroom".

1994 – 1995, University of Idaho, Moscow, ID

Part Time Instructor

Responsibilities:

- Elementary Health Methods
- First Aid Instructor

Accomplishments:

- Physical Education Member of the Idaho US West Northern Regional Advisory Council - "Teacher Excellence Appropriate for Our Multiethnic/Multicultural Society".

1993 - 1994, Idaho State University, Pocatello, ID
Student Teacher Supervisor

Responsibilities:

- Supervise and monitor student teachers in physical education, health and biology

1991 – 1992, Springfield College, Springfield, MA
Elementary Physical Education Teaching Fellow

Responsibilities:

- Elementary methods instructor for Physical Education Majors
- Supervise and advise student teachers during pre-practicum experience

1977 - 1981, 1984 -1992, Mayville State University, Mayville, ND
Assistant Professor

Responsibilities:

- Elementary methods instructor for Physical Education Majors
- Director of Intramural
- Head Softball Coach
- Head volleyball and track coach
- Projected budget for class equipment, team expenses, scholarships, recruiting, and officials

Accomplishments:

- Recipient of 1991 North Dakota AHPERD Honor Award
- North Dakota AHPERD Awards Chairman
- NAIA District 12 Coach of the Year
- North Dakota Consortium on Gerontology Representative
- Developed new curriculum for pre-school physical education class
- Member of the North Dakota State Physical Education Curriculum Writing Team. Specifically "physical education teaching and liability".
- Wrote and co-hosted "Sit and Get Fit", a PBS television series for those over 60 years old. As an outgrowth of this program:
 - Developed curriculum for a "Gerio kinesiatrics" course
 - Presented workshops to over 600 professionals
 - Wrote exercise manual for able bodied and wheelchair elderly
 - Presented session in Boston for the national AAHPERD Convention

1976-1977, Eagle High School, Ft. Campbell, KY
Instructor

Responsibilities:

- Instructor for science division in adult education.

1975-1976, Travis Middle School, Temple, TX
Instructor

Responsibilities:

- Taught biology, earth science and general science for 6th, 7th and 8th grade students.
- Head coach for track and volleyball.

1974-1975, Korea Christian Academy, South Korea

Instructor

Responsibilities:

- Taught physical education, English, U.S. history, and biology.
- Head volleyball coach.

1973-1974, Baylor University, Waco, TX

Graduate Teaching Assistant

Responsibilities:

- Taught fitness and activity classes.
- Earned Masters of Science in Education.

Related Experience

1982-1984, City of Phoenix Parks, Recreation, and Library Department

City-Wide Sports Coordinator

Responsibilities:

- City-Wide tournaments in volleyball, basketball, softball, and track and field.
- Established all entry fees according to field usage fees, officials, cost of awards, and miscellaneous expenses.
- Arizona Parks and Recreation Association District III Representative.

Accomplishments:

- Reorganized the women and girls softball program that served 4500 individuals and collected over $100,000 in annual fees.
- A principle organizer for the City of Phoenix Senior Olympics:
The Senior Olympics had over 450 participants in 32 events
Interest generated resulted in the development of the Arizona State Senior Olympics

Research

1994-1995, Irving Middle School, Pocatello, Idaho

- Qualitative graduate research - Dissertation topic "Implications About Group Cultures in Physical Education: A Narrative", Dr. Grace Goc Karp, advisor, University of Idaho.

Spring 1994, Lap Wai Junior High, Lap Wai Indian Reservation, Idaho

- Qualitative pilot study of a 7th grade physical education class for preparation for dissertation.

Spring 1994, University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho

- Qualitative/interview assessment. "Education Perspectives of Pre-Service Teachers: Multicultural Needs Assessment".

1973-74, Baylor University, Waco, Texas

- Thesis title, "Determining the Relative Running Order of the 880 Yd. Dash".