INSTRUCTIONAL ACTIVITIES:

Teaching Experience:

I have more than 20 years of experience teaching college students. During that time, I have taught numerous sections of the courses listed below in various settings. Some courses have been quite large (over 100 students) and others have been small (5 students). Some were at institutions with a liberal arts orientation and others with a technology orientation. Some were service courses and others directed specifically at majors. Three, Research Methods, Social Psychology, and Research Practicum have been at the graduate level. This experience has resulted in an ability to orient the material presented to many types of audiences.

Introductory Psychology
Psychology of Adjustment
Social Psychology

Psychology of Gender
Personal Relationships
Research Practicum (Graduate)

Human Sexuality
Research Methods & Statistics

Careers in Psychology

Additional Teaching Interests:

Aggression / Conflict
Interpersonal Processes
