

First Year Self Evaluation - Clinical

Student: _____ Date Started Program: Fall _____

Advisor: _____ Semester/Year Planning to Complete Program: _____

Submit to your advisor by _____. You will want to discuss your goals with your advisor. Make sure that you have that meeting by _____.

The department has 6 areas of competency we consider essential in our graduates. Look back on your progress over the last academic year and indicate your perceived progress in attaining each of the competencies below. Potential ways of demonstrating your competency in an area might include grades in a course, projects completed, research studies in which you are involved, presentation at conferences, publications, awards and honors, and professional memberships.

Research Competencies: Graduates will be able to design, conduct, analyze, and interpret the results of psychological research

My Progress:

Clinical Competencies: Graduates will demonstrate the ability to conduct assessments.

My Progress:

Language Competencies: Graduates will be able to read and comprehend both experimental and conceptual information. Graduates will be able to effectively express themselves in written and oral form.

My Progress:

Interpersonal Competencies: Graduates will show an understanding of and appreciation for differences among people.

My Progress:

Professional Competencies: Graduates will understand and adhere to codes of professional and ethical conduct

My Progress:

Career Competencies: Graduates will be qualified to assume a psychologically related career and/or continue with more advanced education in the discipline

My Progress:

First Year Self Evaluation - Clinical

ASSISTANTSHIPS: Describe your assistantship duties and experiences.

GOALS FOR NEXT ACADEMIC YEAR:

CAREER AND FURTHER EDUCATION GOALS:

ANTICIPATED SEMESTER/YEAR FOR COMPLETION OF COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATIONS:

THESIS/ INTERNSHIP (i.e., clinical, research and/or teaching) PREFERENCES:

You will need to attach your PROPOSED complete plan of study. This form is found in the excel file you used to formulate your initial plan of study.