

Active Organizations

Organization	Purpose
Alpha Mu Gamma	The purposes of this Society shall be: a) to recognize achievement in the field of foreign language study; b) to stimulate a desire for linguistic attainment; c) to encourage a continuing interest in the study of foreign languages, literature, and civilizations; and d) to foster sympathetic understanding of other peoples and international friendship.
Amnesty	Amnesty International's mission is to undertake research and action focused on preventing and ending grave abuses to the rights to physical and mental integrity, freedom of conscience, and expression, and freedom from discrimination within the context of its work to promote all human rights.
Anime Club	The ASU Anime Club was created for the purpose of social interaction as well as viewing and discussion of Japanese animation.
Baptist Collegiate Ministries	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To motivate students and faculty members to commitment to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. 2. To involve them in responsible church membership and denominational understanding and participation. 3. To guide them in worship and devotional experience. 4. To involve them in the study of the Biblical faith and Christian life. 5. To guide them in Christian witnessing. 6. To involve them in experiences in the Christian community. 7. To involve them in Christian social life and recreation. 8. To lead them to participate inn Christian world stewardship. 9. To lead them to accept and practice the principles of a Christian stewardship. 10. To lead them to examine academic disciplines from a Christian perspective. 11. To enlist and train them for a life of Christian service in their vocation.
Biology Club/ BetaBetaBeta	The ASU Biology Club shall provide avenues for expanding the scope of Biology for those students majoring, minoring, or interested in the field of biology. The club will provide social opportunities for its members to conjugate on and off campus with one another regarding the field of Biology. This club will provide service to the community and environment. This club shall also be a part of the professional training of its members.
Black Student Union	The purpose of this organization is to promote unity and maintain Black identities on the ASU campus and in the community by creating self awareness, being a service organization on and off campus—politically, civilly, and socially, and providing an open forum for the entire ASU community for the expression and discussion of ideas and issues relative to black people.

Blue Crew	To provide communication to the students when and where athletic functions are held. To increase attendance at all athletic events, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, softball, baseball golf, tennis, and cross country. To promote school spirit.
Campus Outreach	Campus Outreach's mission statement is "To Glorify God by building laborers on the campus for the lost world." We are an interdenominational ministry committed to helping students know Christ as their Lord and Savior grow in their relationship with God.
Cheerleaders	The Augusta State University Cheerleading Squad is a student organization formed to support Athletic events as well as represent at the university around the community.
Chemistry Club	The objects of this chapter shall be to afford an opportunity for students of chemistry, chemical engineering, and related disciplines to become better acquainted, to secure the intellectual stimulation that arises from professional association, to obtain experience in preparing and presenting technical material before chemical audiences, to foster a professional spirit among the members, to instill a professional pride in chemistry and chemical engineering, and to foster an awareness of the responsibilities and challenges of the modern chemist.
Chi Sigma Iota	The purposes of the society shall be to promote scholarship, research, professionalism, and excellence in counseling, and to recognize high attainment in the pursuit of academic and clinical excellence in the field of counseling.
Choir	The purpose of this organization shall be to participate in the performance of worthy choral music for the benefit of the college, choir, and community.
CMENC	Our desire is to become members of the Collegiate music Educators National Conference Chapter of ASU. We as members have the opportunity to enjoy MENC Collegiate membership, to share its responsibilities, and to increase interest, knowledge, and productivity in all areas of music education.
Creative Writing	The purpose of the Creative Writing Club is to promote the discipline and art of all genres of creative writing to include short story and novel writing, creative non-fiction, children's literature, playwriting, songwriting, and all types of poetry, through educational and social activities that appeal to diverse audiences within the student body of ASU.
Criminal Justice Club	Believe that community and social justice are necessary to the survival of any society are dedicated to the advancement of knowledge both generally and in regards to social justice, commitment to excellence in learning, and the enrichment of the community in a climate which promoted human values, do ordain and establish this constitution.

Drama guild	The theatre guild is a departmental organization that represents the theater department at the ASU in Augusta, GA. Our purpose is to educate ASU students about the theatre by performing, producing, and providing workshops that will enhance their skills. We are dedicated to exploring the cultural and artistic mediums to further expand the knowledge and enlighten the life experiences of the Greater Augusta Community.
Electronic Gaming Club	To encourage fellowship among video game enthusiasts. This shall be accomplished by scheduling meetings, holding tournaments/competitions, etc.
English Club	To help draw together English majors and others interested in literature and writing
Equestrian Club	The principal objectives of the ASU Equestrian Team are to promote participation and sportsmanship in equestrian competition among all students without regard to their level of riding skill, to encourage the development of sportsmanship and team spirit, and to field ASU's intercollegiate equestrian team.
Euclidean Society	To provide opportunities for students to converse with faculty members and other students who are interested in mathematics, and to acquaint the students with new concepts and applications of mathematics.
Every Nation Campus Ministry	To lead students to Christ and train them for victorious living. To win not only students, but through them, their families and the nations they live in with the love of Christ.
Gospel Ensemble	To spread the gospel of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior; to minister to the spiritual needs of all people; and to promote an interest in Christian singing and music.
GANS	To assume responsibility for contributing to nursing education to provide for the highest quality of health care. To provide programs representative of fundamental and current professional interest and concerns. To aid in the development of the whole person, including and understanding of the professional role of a nurse, and his/her responsibility for the health care of all people.
History Club	To sponsor dialogue between students, broadening perspectives of knowledge; to assist in bringing to the university community a further awareness of scholarly achievement, and to nurture the interest in history that brings us together.
Honors Student Assc.	To represent all students enrolled in the Honors Program. Provide liaison between the Honors Committee and/or Faculty and the Honors students. To advise and work with the Honors Committee for improvements in the Honor Program. Sponsor academic, social, and volunteer activities for the ASU HPSA, Promote a sense of community among Honors students and inform them of their responsibilities and of opportunities as they arise. Promote awareness of and respect for the honors program on and off campus. Evaluate the Honors Program and its progress toward reaching its stated goals.

International Student Club	To attain recognition through proper campus organization and charter. To participate fully in the activities promoted on this campus. To share our experiences with the other students at ASU. To create a liaison with our respective cultures and broaden our educational horizon here at ASU. To articulate our difficulties through the organization as they manifest themselves in the social, economic, and educational arenas. To create a fund that will be used for emergencies involving international students who are club members and part of the student body at ASU and other purposes, such as cultural activities. To provide cultural activities and presentations to the school and community to disseminate info about our country and language. To assist prospective and new international students at ASU.
Kappa Delta Epsilon	To unite education career-bound students and professional educators in an honorary professional organization for campus and or community service. To encourage all members in support of an active participation in current educational endeavors. To acquaint members with the history and ethics of the teaching profession. To lead members in developing a higher level of professional responsibilities. To develop a spirit of mutual understanding, cooperation, and fellowship among its entire membership.
Los Amigos Hispanos	To stimulate an interest in the language, literature, and culture of Spanish- speaking countries and to foster a deeper understanding of other people's and international friendship
Mad Potters	To serve ceramic art at ASU from students' points of view
Model Arab League Club	To participate in the annual collegiate events sponsored by the National Council on United States Arab Relations
Nu Chapter Dance	To support athletic events, as was as the community. We want to help raise the participation of basketball games.
Orchestra	To promote and perform music of the highest performance levels, while providing an opportunity for students to belong and contribute to, the development of an organization.
Phi Beta Lambda	To provide opportunities for post-secondary and college students to develop vocational competencies for business and office occupations and business teacher education.
Pep Band	To provide energetic and spirited music to ASU Athletic teams which presently include the Men and Women's Basketball teams.
Phi Chi Alpha Beta	1. To encourage the pursuit of continuing education among members of the profession. 2. To have a continuous recruitment program for nursing and the health profession.

	3. To stimulate a close and friendly relationship among the members. 4. To develop working relationships with other professional groups for the improvement and delivery of health care services. 5. To constantly identify a corps of nursing leaders within the membership who will function as agents of social change on the national, regional, and local levels.
Physics Club	Promote the professional development of the club's student members. Act as a liaison between the club's student members and the department. Encourage involvement with the local scientific and academic community.
Philosophy Club	To foster philosophical thought and discussion and to promote the philosophical inquiry into all aspects of life, through providing a forum for discussion of philosophical ideas, wherever they arise.
Political Science Club	To stimulate college students to be active in the political process.
Pre- Law Club	To provide an atmosphere for students interested in law, provide for an understanding of law and its purpose and to encourage communication between students by: visiting law schools, being politically and socially active, and providing a forum for guest speakers who are involved in the legal system
Psi Chi	To encourage, stimulate, and maintain excellence in scholarship of the individual members in all fields, particular in psychology, and to advance the science of psychology.
Ranger Club	Provide extracurricular training in leadership and military related skill sponsor social activities and functions for club members and their guests.
SGAE	To promote quality education, to interest capable young men and women in teaching careers, to develop among college students preparing to be teachers an understanding of the teaching profession, to acquaint and involve preparatory teachers with the history, ethics policies, programs and problems, of local, state and national education associations we, the Student Government Association of Educators.
SCEC	To advance the education of individuals with exceptionalities and to promote related educational, scientific, and charitable purposes. Specifically, the chapter intends to assist and provide support to the Georgia state/provincial unit of the Council for Exceptional Children in all its efforts on behalf of the persons with exceptionalities, and to participate in all appropriate governance activities of CEC subject to the general supervision and control of CEC.
Social Hearts Club	To promote the advancement of community service.
Soccer Club	To provide opportunities for all players interested in playing competitive intercollegiate soccer at the collegiate club level as an alternative to Men's Varsity soccer and have fun. Provides a competitive arena for enjoyment of one of the most loved sports in the world.

Sociology Club	To encourage student participation in measures that promotes the study of the social aspects of human life as related to the students, faculty, staff, and administration of ASU, as well as the community at large.
SPAGE	To give students preparing to teach practical experience in working together and in working with other SPAGE chapters and or state organization on challenge profession and of society. To acquaint students preparing to teach with the history, ethics, organization, policies and programs of the state organization. To interest capable young men and women in education as a professional career and to encourage the practice of high standards of personal and professional conduct among pre-teachers. To promote quality education. To hold meetings and conferences for the mutual improvement and education of members.
Student Ambassador	To foster good relations between student and alumni, and encourage participation of students in Alumni Association activities; To promote services to students, utilizing resources of alumni and the Alumni Association, To provide community diplomacy for ASU.
Student Anthropology Society	To promote interest in Anthropology on the campus of ASU and in the Augusta community.
Student Business Assoc.	To furthering knowledge of business management. Provides insight into the daily operation of owning a small business and secure resources for funding, maintaining advertisement and training personnel.
Student Housing Assoc.	To represent student population of ASU, in collaboration with the administration, faculty, student,, and staff of ASU in all matters and affairs, concerning or effecting the quality of living in campus housing. To ensure representation for all resident students. To sponsor programs and activities for residents through the use of the Residence Council in collaboration with the office of Student Activities and to take all necessary and appropriate action to improve and all aspects of residence life on this campus.
Student Veterans Assoc.	To develop esprit de corps amongst the current and future ASU students who are military veterans and advocate on behalf of student veterans at levels of govt.
Table Tennis Club	To provide an environment conducive to serious and recreational table tennis play to all its members. Table tennis is the one of the most popular sports in the world, and is seriously underrepresented in this country. Therefore, outlets must be provided where those who love the sport can play in optimum conditions. The club provide such an outlet in a city where, though the sport once thrived, there is now no such place. In doing so, the Club will share the benefits of this healthy, lifelong sport while encouraging participation in national, state, local, and our own various tournaments and competitions.

Wesley Foundation	To augment the academic life of students, faculty, administration, and other interested parties with spiritual formation, worship, faith awareness, and community service opportunities.
Wind Ensemble	To provide an opportunity for students to belong and contribute to the development of an organization. To assist the development of students' musical abilities in an academic setting. To participate in campus activities and concerts, as well as concerts throughout the community. To promote and perform music within the highest performance levels.
Women's Studies	To inform and educate all interested parties in women's studies, women's issues, and women's effect on society.