

Inactive Organizations

Organization	Purpose
238	To provide for students, faculty, and alumni of Augusta State University and secondly to the general public the opportunity to personally experience biblical truths and receive relevant biblical teachings. Events that introduce, reinforce, and advance truths and teachings, and provide fun and entertainment in harmony with Christian family and educational values. Individuals that, by the effect of these truths and teachings, develop a permanent foundation of Christian character continuously evidenced, in all aspects, by the compassion, integrity, humility, and ardor.
AC Billiards Society	To promote interest and competition in billiard games on the Augusta College.
AC Christian Fellowship	To help students of Augusta College find meaning and purpose in life by guiding them into a personal knowledge of faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.
AC Student Mobilization	To inform students on the involvement of the United States in Vietnam through films, distribution of leaflets, speakers and debates.
ALERTS	To provide support, encouragement, resources, and continued assistance to all students, especially non traditional student, adjusting to their return to the learning environment. Utilizing resources offered by the Counseling and Testing Center and experiences by its member ALERTS will aid in the transition to academic life. ALERTS will also serve as a liaison between students and faculty and/ or staff to assist in resolving concerns expressed by either side.
Alliance Working for Progress	To stop censorship and uphold the rights and freedom of the student body. We will serve to represent students who feel that any of their rights have been abridged. Will monitor and hold accountable the administration, faculty, and the student govt. to insure the interests of the collective student body are upheld.
Alpha Beta Alpha	To carry out the objectives of the National Criminal Justice Honors Society, Alpha Phi Sigma.
Alpha Kappa Delta	To pursue the goals of Alpha Kappa Delta. To promote an interest in the study of sociology, research of social problems, and such other social and intellectual activities as will lead to improvement in the human condition.
ASPA	To foster scientific study and research in the field of marketing. To develop sound thinking in marketing theory and more exact knowledge and definition of marketing principles. To improve the methods and techniques of marketing research. To develop better public understanding and appreciation of marketing problems. To study and discuss legislation and judicial decisions regarding marketing. To improve marketing personnel. To record progress in marketing through the publications of outstanding papers. To encourage and uphold sound, honest practices, and to keep marketing work on a high ethical plane. To promote friendly relations between students, faculty, and business people.

Assoc. of Computing Machinery	To promote as increased knowledge of the science, design, development, construction, Languages, And applications. To provide a means of communication between persons having interest in computing machinery. To provide students interested in computer science the opportunity to engage in educational activities in addition to the computer science curriculum provided at Augusta College as a means of enriching the student's educational experience at this institution.
Drumline	To provide an opportunity for students to belong and contribute to the development of an organization. To assist the development of students' musical abilities in an academic setting. To participate in campus activities and concerts, as well as concerts throughout the community. To promote and perform music within the highest performance levels.
Epoche Society	To enhance the quality of life for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender students and their allies at the ASU through the promotion of service, leadership, education, activism, and social environment.
ASU Liberal Religious Students	To promote the social, ethical, and personal growth of its membership, as well as to benefit the students, faculty, and community of ASU.
ASU Paranormal Investigators	To investigate haunted locations in the CSRA with the hopes of an encounter, and to learn the history behind these occurrences through research and personal interviews.
ASU Society of Sculptors	To promote learning about art and sculpture at ASU, through visiting artists programs and other educational activities.
ASU College Freewheelers	To promote cycling and Bicycle safety and to provide a means of support for students and faculty who are interested in cycling and/or racing. The powers of the club include presenting films and guest speakers and organizing frequent riders and cycling trips for its members.
Augusta College Jaycees	To promote civic service through the organized efforts of the young men of the community. To promote the welfare of the community and its citizens through active, constructive projects. To provide its membership with training in leadership. To instill civic consciousness in members so as to improve their usefulness as citizens and students
Aviation Club	To be the promotion of general aviation, among the student body, faculty, and staff of Augusta State University.
Baha'i club	To acquaint those interested with the tenants of the Baha'i faith, by sponsoring such things as lectures, discussions, informal gatherings, social activities and public meetings.

Beta Gamma Sigma	To encourage and honor academic achievement in the study of business and personal and professional excellence in the practice of business.
Bow Club	To promote interest in archery, to foster fellowship among archers, to encourage good sportsmanship, and to provide a safe place for archers to develop and practice their skills.
Campus Crusade for Christ	To be witnesses for Jesus Christ in our academic community this includes students, faculty and administration. To present the claims of Jesus Christ. To build disciplines by teaching of God's unconditional love. To give guidance and encouragement to those who desire above all else to make their lives count for God.
Campus Life	Will serve as a means of fellowship and outreach for the Augusta College in good standing.
Canterbury Fellowship	To help students grow and deepen their relationship with God.
Catholic Student Outreach	To bring Catholic students and other students interested in Catholicism together to form a closer relationship with Christ.
Chamber Singers	A choral ensemble.
Chess Club	To further the knowledge and ability that comes with playing chess. To enter and play in chess tournaments.
Christian Bible Fellowship	To educate the students of Augusta College about the Bible through study, talks and other literature.
Christian Science club	To share with the college community through regular testimony meetings, Christian Science literatures, or other activities, the spiritual truths of Christian Science as found in the bible and in Science and Health with key to the Scriptures by Mrs. Eddy. To provide a loving welcome to Christian Scientists entering the college, to unite Christian Scientists at school in closer bonds of Christian fellowship.
Circle K	To direct, manage, supervise, and control its business, property, and funds. To create, supervise, and assist and control chartered clubs and groups of chartered clubs in divisions and districts.
Circles of the Lord and Lady	To provide a place for pagans and those curious about pagan religion to come and learn. To assist the pagans of ASU in knowing and finding fellow pagans in the community. At the same time, we wish this to assist in giving a place to congregate and discuss beliefs openly without fear of ridicule. To promote a growing knowledge about pagan religions here at ASU. All students are welcome to attend at any point to learn more.
Civitans	To emphasize the advantages of the American-Canadian way of life, to promote good fellowship and high scholarship, to serve on the campus and in the community, to provide an opportunity for leadership training through service to encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships, and to begin as collegiate Civitans to be Builders of Good Citizenship in rendering altruistic service and in building better communities.

CMLA	To provide an organized source of information this supports legislation, standards and recommendations enhancing middle level concepts, practices and ideas.
Coffeehouse	To provide students and staff members, a Christian fellowship that is non-denominational and to provide a casual, culture-current atmosphere in which Christianity can be presented in a coffeehouse setting.
College Republicans	To promote the principles of the Republican party among the students at ASU, to increase the membership in the club and in the Republican Party, to provide a forum for discussion and growth of the Republican Party, to provide services to the republican party at all levels , to aid in the election of Republican candidates at all levels of government, to develop strong leadership abilities and political skills among Republican students as preparation for future service to the Republican party and to the United States of America.
Community Forum	To present entertainment and views and information on vital topics through literature, displays, and assembly programs.
Counselor Education	To organize the graduate students and post baccalaureate students in the Counselor Education program to promote educational, social interaction, and community awareness in the counseling profession.
CSRA College Dance Club	To create an inexpensive opportunity for ballroom dancing and dance instruction for students, faculty, and staff of ASU. To promote and extend the benefits of ballroom dance throughout ASU.
Debate Club	To establish, encourage, and provide the opportunity for student participation in intercollegiate debate and related forensic activities.
Die Deutshe Gruppe	To stimulate an interest in the language, literature, and culture of German-speaking countries and to provide a forum for encounters between Augusta College Students and members of the local German community.
Fellowship of Christian Athletes	To present to athletes and coaches and all whom they influence the challenge and adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, serving Him in their relationships and in the fellowship of the church.
Fencing Club	To offer to any Augusta College student an opportunity to learn about Fencing, receive training, acquire experience, and to compete among the membership.
Filipino Student Assoc.	To establish a sense of unity between Filipinos at ASU. To educate the community of ASU about the Filipino culture by way of sponsorship and involvement in campus events. To promote the culture and customs of the Filipino culture at ASU. To establish better relations between Filipinos at ASU and the rest of the ASU community.

Film club	To provide an organization for students interested in making and sharing film; to encourage quality in script writing, photography and editing; to serve the College by serving as a source for film when needed by specific disciplines.
Finance Club	To provide members with an informal and at times formal medium exchange of ideas and perspectives dedicated to, but not limited to, the field of finance and business.
Financial Management Club	To provide the students of Augusta college the opportunity to interact with business and community leaders of the CSRA.
Greek Council	To promote the interest of the University. To promote the interest of the member organizations. To serve as the coordinating body for all Greek service/social fraternities and sororities. To issue cooperation between their organization and the university authorities to the end that the condition of member organizations may be favorably maintained. To discuss questions of mutual interest and to present such recommendation to each member organization. To maintain the standard of social fraternal groups and hold them accountable for all violation of the council.
Heart of Many	To expand an appreciation for poetry and introduce the many dimensions of poetry within the group and the ASU campus.
Higher Taste Club	To give its members and the Augusta college community at large an opportunity to take part in and get a deeper appreciation of the Vedic culture of India.
Image Modeling Troupe	To introduce the world of fashion into a diverse school environment, encouraging the student population to express themselves through the style of clothing.
Inst. Of Management Accountants	To foster and environment of learning for accounting majors.
Jazz Ensemble	To promote and perform music within the highest performance levels, while providing an opportunity for students to belong and contribute to, the development of an organization.
Kappa Epsilon	To describe the essential character of the early church and usually translated fellowship epignosis.
Kinesiology and Health Science Club	To provide its members with a wonderful college experience. To assist in improving it member's college experience. To promote life long bonds with other members.
ASU Lacrosse Club	To promote the institution of lacrosse in ASU in every applicable level, including the healthy competition, the natural progression of skills, and the sense of social fellowship encourage by the sport.
Lambda Alliance	To give support and strength to gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered students, and those students questioning their sexuality at ASU.

Lambda Alpha Chi	To establish among its members and pledges honesty, loyalty, justice, industry, patriotism, morality, fraternity, and the ideals of Christian manhood.
Le Cercle Francais	To stimulate an interest in the language, literature, and culture of French speaking countries and to provide a forum for encounters between Augusta College Students and members of the local French community.
Marketing Club	To develop and nurture the awareness of members knowledge and interest in marketing related issues and opportunities to the fullest extent of benefits for society as a whole
Married and Parenting Students	To support the interest of its members in pursuit of their education at an institution of higher learning.
Martial Arts Club	To trade techniques between multiple styles, sparring, and practice martial arts in pursuit of honing and improving skills.
MBA Assoc.	To provide a forum to facilitate communication among and between Augusta College administration, faculty, and the student body.
Media Arts Club	Provide an outlet for students interested in media.
Mediators Anonymous	Provide an outlet for students interested in learning about and providing mediation services on campus.
Military History	To the better understanding of warfare past and present.
Ministry of Muggles	To bring together a diverse group of people who enjoy Harry potter to engage in meaningful discussions dealing with the books, to put together entertaining presentations, and to experience other lively activities as well.
Modern Dance Club	To promote the art of dancing at Augusta College and in the Augusta community
Mountain Biking Club	To provide opportunities for outdoor recreation in the surrounding area.
Mu Phi Epsilon	The recognition of scholarship and musicianship, and the development of a bond of friendship among its members.
Mu Phi Mu	To promote fellowship and unity among students.
Mu Rho Sigma	To promote friendship through association with women who are or have been married.
Muslim Student Assoc.	To bring about better understanding of Islam as a religion. To make Islamic info available to the public and to encourage participation of MSA members in such endeavors. Presenting and explaining Islam to the followers of other faiths. To encourage people of all cultures, ages, religions, and faiths to join, discuss, and participate in all the club activities.
NAMI	Provide or enhance support and counseling services on campus. Educate students, faculty, administrators, and other members of the campus community about mental illness. Serve as an info and resource collection and dissemination center. Monitor existing campus health care facilities, staff, and programming for adequacy and accountability. Advocate administrators to improve mental illness amongst students. Solicit and receive funds in support of all of the above.

Native American Society	To increase Native American awareness on campus and in the Augusta community. To provide a gathering for Native American students and those interested in learning more about native American cultures and issues.
Objectivist Club	Will provide a communication hub for intellectual activities, guest speakers, video series, etc.
Omega Xi Epsilon	To create an atmosphere for ladies of all backgrounds to unite in hopes of forming friendships of a lifetime.
Omicrow Psi Honor Society Chapter	To recognize achievement of non traditional students throughout the US. To award these students with a certificate of achievement, honor cords, and insignia pins. To encourage the continuation of educational pursuits. To supply scholarship applications to members and to encourage participation in our scholarship program. To provide scholarships from monies received through membership dues. To be a service to our members and provide referrals and references upon request.
Order of the Eastern Star	To educate, provide leadership, and form a union of intelligent, diverse, socially conscious, sophisticated, and spiritual ladies.
Oriental Arts and Cultural Club	To attain recognition through proper campus organization and charter. To participate fully in campus activities. To educate, introduce and exhibit areas, music, films, drama, dance, and other cultural manifestation of oriental countries for students of Augusta College and campus community. To generate a fund for self sustaining its operations and to participate in cultural activities of other schools on reciprocal basis.
Pep Club	To promote school spirit among the students attending Augusta College.
Phi Alpha Theta	History honors society.
Pre med Club	To provide an environment that supports the creative ideas of the pre medical student. To promote, encourage, and maintain a cohesive relationship with the ASU student and the community. To provide information and literature concerning the medical college Admission as well as Medical Schools. To effect change to make the premedical and medical education process more responsive to the needs of the student. To increase knowledge of health information among members.
Progressive Student Union	To uproot environmental injustices through action and education.
Rowing Club	An organization for students interested in rowing and crew.

Reformed Student	To foster serious Christian thought and reflection in an academic environment.
Rifle Club	To improve the knowledge and skill of its members in matters relating to the proper care and handling of rifles, and the management of target shooting ranges and competitions, and to develop among its members those qualities of leadership, loyalty, cooperation and good sportsmanship which are essential to good citizenship.
Rugby Club	To insure that the playing of the game of Rugby Union Football within the said area is carried out observing fair play according to the laws of the game and a sporting spirit.
Science Fiction and Fantasy Club	To take a look at science fiction and fantasy through all forms of media and to promote creative thought.
Sigma Tau Delta	Confer distinction for high achievement in English language and literature in undergraduate, graduate and professional studies. Provide cultural stimulation on college campuses and promote interest in literature and the English language in the surrounding communities. Foster all aspects of the discipline of English. Promote exemplary character and good fellowship among its members. Exhibit high standards of academic excellence and serve society by fostering literacy.
STAAR	To help our community's libraries in upgrading and advancing their technology to help educate our community's children.
Student Art Assoc.	To promote the visual arts at Augusta college by sponsoring related social and educational experiences.
Student Music Organization	To support and promote the musical activities and interests of all its members and all music students at Augusta College.
Student Society of Professional Journalists	Will aid in the understanding of concepts and principles involved in the areas of journalism, public relations, and telecommunication.
Student Voices for Reproductive Rights	To educate the university community about reproductive health and rights. To translate increased awareness into pro-choice activism on campus. To serve as a coalition partner to state, national, and international reproductive rights efforts.
Students for spiritual awakening	To bringing greater understanding, awareness, and insight into each of our lives through the practice of Buddhism and yoga.
Tae Kwon Do	To provide an opportunity for mutual fellowship for those interested in Tae Kwon Do. To inform others concerning the many benefits of Tae Kwon Do. To encourage the rigorous pursuit of this martial art style for each of its members. To promote the Tae Kwon Do philosophy as a way of life. To uphold the traditional value of patience, courage, and loyalty long associated with Tae Kwon Do. To provide a means for organizing group activities and workouts in Tae Kwon Do.
Talented Tenth	To increase college graduation rates to further advance the professional and personal development of character, and to increasing a sense of camaraderie of its members.

The Green Party	To actively maintain bio-diversity and work towards a sustainable future. To educate students, community, and the world to promote environmental awareness. To assist non-profit organizations with environmental and wildlife concerns. To engage in research in order to gain applicable knowledge to assist in our goals. To become involved in political issues pertaining to ecological welfare.
Theta Nu Xi	To encourage and maintain racial harmony and sisterhood among university women of all ethnic backgrounds through academic achievement, friendship, campus activities, and involvement in the community. To be a representative organization of the student body on the campus of ASU. To enjoy all the privileges and carry out all the responsibilities granted to Alpha Chi Delta by ASU.
Track Club	For people who are interested in track and field a chance to participate in a competitive athletic program. To become part of the official athletic program at Augusta College.
ASU trumpet Guild	To provide an opportunity for students to belong and contribute to the development of an organization. To assist the development of students' musical abilities in and academic setting. To participate in campus activities and concerts, as well as concerts throughout the community. To promote and perform music within the highest performance levels.
Tutor Club	To attain recognition through proper organization and charter. To participate fully in college activities. To promote the services of the Writing center. To initiate and/or participate in writing activities supported by Augusta College. To raise funds for improvement of the Writing Center and its related activities. To improve the service of the writing center through discussions at weekly meetings.
Universalist Unitarian Student Ministry	To promote and develop a safe, open-minded and tolerant atmosphere for worship and religious exploration. To affirm the values of Justice, equality, diversity, and interdependence. To facilitate fair and balanced religious discussions and events on campus with the goal and purpose of general education, and spiritual growth. To promote and develop a general sense of community and tolerance both within the organization and Georgia Southern University.
University Broadcasting	To oversee the creation and to maintain a student run radio and television station for broadcasting to the ASU student body as well as any other listeners and viewers within broadcast range.
Wakeboarding and more	To teach interested students to wakeboard and to have fun
Weightlifting Club	To generate interest in weight training on campus. To assist students in working out and provide a voice for suggestion and student need in this area.

Wilderness Club	To promote greater appreciation for the wilderness, broaden public awareness of problems affecting the wilderness and its wildlife, and to foster a closer relationship between the students, faculty, and alumni of Augusta College.
Wrestling Club	To provide a club that will teach people how to wrestle. To assist those who are looking to further skills already obtained. To participate in activities with various collegiate wrestling clubs/programs throughout the country. To promote the sport of wrestling at ASU and the Augusta area in general.
Young Democrats of Georgia	To stimulate in ASU students an active interest in governmental affairs and promote their involvement at all levels of the Democratic Party. To promote the acquisition of political power by ASU students. To foster the ideals and principles of the highest degree of justice and social welfare. To promote issue awareness, civic duty, and community service.