Title of project: New AV Systems for 4 CFH
 Requestor's name and email: Paula Dohoney pdhoney@aug.edu
 Department/Organization: Kinesiology & Health Science
 Date: October 4, 2007
 Estimated Project Cost: 61,722.00

Brief summary of the project:

Classroom technology on Augusta State University's main campus is cause for great pride. Continual upgrades and replacements give faculty and students the opportunity to teach and learn in technologically advanced facilities. The same commitment to technology cannot be found on the West Campus. The classrooms in Christenberry Field House have outdated projectors and lack any type of control system. Media Services frequently respond to calls resulting from equipment malfunction. Many times these calls are operation errors due to the lack of an installed control system. New Extron control systems will solve many technology errors experienced in CFH.
