

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7106
Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland
Date: 03/2001
Subject: These photographs depict Markert Hall.

7106-A: Shown here is the western side of Markert Hall.
7106-B: The northern side of the building can be seen in this photograph.
7106-C: Depicted here is the eastern side of the building.
7106-D: In this photograph is the south side of the building.
7106-E thru J: These photographs are from various classrooms and hallways that make up the building.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7103

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 02/2001

Subject: Seen here is the main entrance of ASU from the intersection of Lyles Road and Walton Way.

7103-A: This photograph shows a northern view from Lyles Road. Shown in the middle ground is the intersection of Lyles Road and Bomford Road. To the left is the Arsenal Oak.

7103-B and C: Shown here is a closer view of the intersection of Lyles Road and Walton Way.

7103-D thru G: A southern view of the entrance can be seen in these photographs. The Public Safety Building can be seen to the right in each of the photographs.

7103-H: Shown here is the bus stop that was incorporated into the main entrance.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7166

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 08/2002

Subject: These photographs were taken on the grounds of the Forest Hills Golf Course.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7103

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 02/2001

Subject: These photographs were taken at Cedar Creek Cemetery.

7103-A thru D: The inscription on the tombstone reads as follows.

"Sacred to the memory of Bob Dearing. A slave belonging to the Georgia R. Road who died on the 6 of March 1863 from disease contracted while waiting on a fellow sufferer. He was an honest and faithful slave. This stone has been erected by the employees of the Road, both white and black as a ??? of esteem and a just appreciation of his worth. He was about 48 years of age. May he rest in peace."

7103-E thru G: Shown here is the grave of Amanda Dickson Tommer. She lived from November 20, 1849 till June 11 1893. According to a caretaker her father was a slave owner and her mother was his slave.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7107

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 03/2001

Subject: Both photographs show the front of Boykin Wright Hall.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: Not Applicable

Photographer: Unknown

Date: Unknown

Subject: This photograph is of the water tower that was located near the old baseball field on campus.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7102

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 02/2001

Subject: The Small Business Administration Building also known as the Development House now houses the Personnel Office and is located at the corner of Katherine Street and Pickens Road.

7102-A thru C: Outside views of the building, prior to renovation, are shown.

7102-D thru J: Views from various rooms on the first floor are shown.

7102-K thru O: These photographs were taken in various rooms on the second floor.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7123

Photographer: Heather L. Cox

Date: 9/2001

Subject: University President William Bloodworth was photographed in his Rains Hall office.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7146

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 01/2002

Subject: These photographs shows former Vice President of Academic Affairs
Bill Bompert in is Payne Hall office.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7107

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 03/2001

Subject: These photographs were taken at various points along Bomford Road.

7107-A and B: Shown here is an eastern entrance onto Bomford Road from Katherine Street.

7107-C thru I: These photographs were taken at various points along Bomford Road.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7107

Photographer: Heather L. Cox

Date: 03/2001

Subject: Various events were held under the main entrance of the Performing Arts Theatre for International Student's Day.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7105

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 03/2001

Subject: These photographs are from Hardy Hall.

7105-A: The western side of the building can be seen from this view.

7105-B: This view is from the northern side of the building.

7105-C: An eastern view of the exterior can be seen in this photograph.

7105-D: This photograph shows the southern side of the building.

7105-E thru H: These photographs were taken in the hallways of Hardy Hall.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7143

Photographer: Heather L. Cox

Date: 01/2002

Subject: Depicted here, in Rains Hall, is President William Bloodworth signing the final plans to the Classroom Replacement Phase II Project, later known as University Hall.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7147

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 01/2002

Subject: Depicted here, in Rains Hall, is President William Bloodworth signing the final plans to the Classroom Replacement Phase II Project, later known as University Hall.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7104

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 03/2001

Subject: These photographs were taken in Skinner Hall.

7104-A thru C: These photographs show the western exterior of the building.

7104-D: This photograph shows the north side of the building.

7104-E: Shown here is an eastern view of the building.

7104-F: A southern view of the building can be seen in this photograph.

7104-G thru L: These photographs were taken in the various classrooms and hallways of Skinner Hall.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7101

Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland

Date: 9/2001

Subject: The Counselor Education Training Center, also known as the Snell house, was located at the corner of McDowell Street and Stovall Street.

7101-A: This view depicts the front of the building as seen from McDowell Street.

7101-B: Shown here is the porch that was attached to the front of the building.

7101-C: The eastern side of the building is shown.

7101-D: This photograph shows the north side of the building. The adjoining gravel parking lot can be seen in the foreground.

7101-E: The western side of the building can be seen in this photograph.

7101-F thru K: These photographs were taken in various rooms on the ground floor of the building.

7101-L thru Q: These photographs were taken in various rooms on the second floor of the building.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: 7108
Photographer: Timothy R. Strickland
Date: 04/2001

Subject: These photographs were taken of the Chateau located at the corner of Rains Road and Arsenal Avenue.

7108-A thru C: Shown here is the western exterior of the building.

7108-D: This photograph shows the eastern side of the building.

7108-E: The south side of the building can be seen in this photograph.

7108-G and H: Depicted here is the adjoining gravel parking lot located on the south side of the building. In the far ground of both photographs is the Science Building.

7108-I thru Q: These photographs were taken on the inside of the Chateau.

Bell Ringer Entry Number: Not Applicable

Photographer: Unknown

Date: Unknown

Subject: These photographs were taken at the groundbreaking ceremony for the Science Building.