Impacting Student Learning Partner School Conference

Saturday, March 24, 2012
8:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. --- University Hall

Premise: Effective educators have many successful practices that they can share. We invite you to share with our professional development school partners by participating in our Impacting Student Learning Partner Conference. This Conference will provide more than fifty sessions presented by school administrators, educators, classroom teachers and teacher candidates that address issues relevant to student achievement at all levels and in all subject areas. Presenters will be able to share best practices to improve instruction and student performance

Format: Presenters should submit a session proposal to Mr. Ronnie Harrison. Concurrent sessions are scheduled during four time periods, and you may propose a 55-minute presentation. Please type or print very clearly in dark ink on the following proposal page, and write a brief explanation that describes the session that you will be sharing. (This description is printed in the conference booklet).

Presentation: Your presentation should include:

- ❖ a demonstration of a classroom strategy, program or activity designed to actively foster student learning or staff professional development
- ❖ an explanation of how student learning will be impacted

You may bring samples of your work and/or your student's work in electronic format as state of the art technology stations will be provided for each presenter.

Note: ASU teacher candidates, leadership candidates and mentors are encouraged to co-present. If you choose to provide handouts, please plan for approximately 25 participants.
